LOCAL POLICE CAPTURE YOUTH IN AUTO CHASE

Man Wanted Since August
For Douglassville Robbery
Seized in South-Pottstown

A Douglassville RD 1 youth, wanted on a charge of highway robbery since the past Aug. 25, was arrested by Pottstown police yesterday morning, after an automobile chase down Hanover street into South Pottstown.

As a result, Merle Paup, 20, of Douglassville RD 1, will have a hearing at 7:30 o'clock tonight, continued from last night by Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston, of North Coventry township.

Paup was arrested by Motor Patrolman Thomas A. Lawler and Patrolman Paul Bridgeman, after Lawler recognized a car that had been described to him by North Coventry Police Officer Daniel W. Guldin, as the car was driven down Hanover street.

Paup, a tall man, was crouching down in the front seat, Lawler declared, as he chased the car into South Pottstown, where the long-sought youth was arrested.

He was held in a borough hall cell last night, awaiting his hearing.

A WARRANT for the Douglassville RD 1 youth had been issued the past Aug. 27 by Edward Anns, also of Douglassville RD 1, whom Paup and Robert Lichty, of Pottstown RD 1, were accused of beating and robbing.

They were charged with gang-ing up on Anns the past Aug. 25, when the trio was leaving a factory where they worked, early in the morning.

Lichty and Paup, both large men, allegedly took the middle-aged, slender Anns to an alley near River road and Route 100, beat him and robbed him of $4.

Lichty was arrested almost immediately but Paup managed to remain free until yesterday morning.

Lichty was held without bail the past summer and sent to the Chester county prison, West Chester. Later, he was released on a writ of habeas corpus after furnishing bail of $2000.

President Receives Hero's Welcome at Key West; Will Rest

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 7 (AP)—President Truman, the political giant killer, returned to the nation's southernmost city today to be greeted by sun-tanned residents as a hero.

He told reporters he expected to "take it easy" while here and advised them to recuperate from the strain of the 31,500-mile campaign in which most of them covered his 351 speeches.

Mrs. Truman and his daughter, Margaret, are to join him next week at the naval submarine base where he has established quarters in the commandant's house.

A ROOM ALSO has been set aside for Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, the vice president-elect. Who else may join him—or visit him for a day or two—is matter for wide speculation.

The President expects to stay here—swimming and sunbathing—for at least two weeks. His physician, Brig. General Wallace H. Graham, would like for him to stay longer.

En route here in the "Independence," the White House DC6, Mr. Truman stopped over in North Carolina to attend divine services at the First Baptist church in New Bern.

HE LANDED AT the Cherry Point Marine base, and drove the 19 miles to the century-old First Baptist church where he kept a promise to hear a sermon by the Rev. Thomas W. Fryer.

The pastor had visited the White House early in September, made a great impression on the President and won a promise that Mr. Truman would drop by for services soon.

Practically everybody in New Bern turned out on the streets to applaud the President's arrival.

Russia Parades Its Military Might in Moscow

As bombers and fighter planes flew overhead, Russia's military might of troops, tanks and vehicles paraded through Red Square in Moscow yesterday on the 31st anniversary of the Russian revolution. Top Soviet leaders, with the exception of Prime Minister Stalin, were in the reviewing stand.

Top Soviet General Urges Armed Strength 'For Peace'

MOSCOW, Nov. 7 (AP)—Marshal S. K. Timoshenko called on the Soviet army today to remain in complete military preparedness but said the growing forces of peace "will not allow a new war."

The Soviet war hero spoke in Red Square as the government observed the 31st anniversary of the Russian revolution by parading its military might before foreign diplomats and military observers.

Timoshenko was flanked by top Soviet leaders, including Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, minister of armed forces, as he reviewed the parade of troops, tanks and vehicles through the thronged square. Planes flew overhead.

Prime Minister Stalin was absent, presumably on his annual vacation.

Burglars Loot Store, Home; 'Gas' Station Attempts Fail

CAR FLIPS OVER ON TOP; PAIR ESCAPES INJURY

Boyertown Auto Goes
Out of Control After Sideswiping Accident

Drivers and passengers of two automobiles escaped without injuries after a sideswiping accident on the road between Gilbertville and Halfway House shortly before 7 o'clock last night, although one of the vehicles went out of control and landed on its roof.

Frederick P. Hevener, of Fourth avenue and Main street, Pottstown, said he was driving over the black-top road toward Halfway House, approximately one mile from Gilbertville, when his 1948 four-door sedan was sideswiped by a car coming along the straight road from the opposite direction.

"I stopped right away, and my wife and I got out," he declared. "We walked back to the other car, and found that the people had already got out. The car was on its roof."

The other driver, Hevener reported, was Mrs. Bernard Evans, of Boyertown. Neither she or an unidentified passenger was injured.

The left front tire of the Evans car blew out at the time of the impact and the 1938 four-door sedan went out of control. It went up on an embankment of the road, then rolled over on the roof.

Mechanics at a Gilbertville garage, where the Evans automobile was towed, said it was virtually demolished, with the roof caved in, the left side smashed, portions of the right side badly damaged and the frame bent.

Hevener listed the damage to his sedan at between $300 and $400. The entire left side was damaged, but Hevener was able to drive the vehicle.

The Pottstown man said the collision occurred approximately 500 feet from where the macadamized road turns off toward Engleview.

A TWO-TON flat-bodied truck turned upside down last night at 10:40 o'clock on the South Pottstown hill of Route 100.

George Albright, 445 South street, the driver, who survived without a scratch, said he applied the brake's abruptly when a car in front of him

Former Local Man Held in Elkton Fire

A former orderly in Memorial hospital has been charged with starting a $40,000 barn fire in Elkton, Md., Cecil County (Md.) Sheriff Elwood Boyd told The Mercury last night.

Harry E. "Hen" Shirey, 37, a longtime Pottstown resident who roomed last at 53 Walnut street, will have a hearing this week before Judge James Wienroth, Elkton.

The charge is "malicious destruction of property" the sheriff said, since under Maryland law a charge of arson cannot be made unless a dwelling place is involved.

The barn that was burned to the ground was owned by Earl Henderson, Barksdale, near Elkton.

Shirey's brother, Elmer, also a former Pottstown resident, worked on the farm, while Harry Shirey had been boarding in his brother's tenant house, the sheriff asserted.

Harry had been employed recently as a construction worker on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

SHERIFF BOYD said Shirey was arrested the past Friday morning, a few hours after Henderson's barn had been leveled.

Shirey was picked up on suspicion, the sheriff said, after a fireman from nearby Newark, Del., heard his talking with neighbors while the fire raged.

While not divulging details of the remarks, the sheriff conceded they had expressed Shirey's animosity toward Henderson.

The fire apparently started in a hay mound, Boyd said, and was out of control before firemen had a chance to answer an alarm.

LOST IN ADDITION to the building, Boyd said, were six cows, six heifers, a bull, a truck, a compactor, 60-70 tons of hay and miscellaneous farm equipment.

The sheriff said total damage ranged between $40,000 and $50,000. He was unable to say how much of it was covered by insurance.

Before entering the Army in 1945 through Company A, Pottstown's National Guard unit, Shirey had been an orderly in Memorial hospital.

THIEVES TAKE CASH, LIQUOR AT STOWE CAFE

Radio, Small Change
Grabbed by Intruder
At Kenilworth Residence

Burglars ransacked a Stowe bar and grocery and the kitchen of a Kenilworth home, and attempted to enter two High street service stations the past weekend.

A cafe and grocery, operated by Mose DeMatteo, at Race and How streets, Stowe, were burglarized between midnight, Saturday and 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when DeMatteo went to the grocery for food for his family.

Each of the two buildings, situated side by side, was entered through a window which the burglars broke.

Seventeen dollars was taken from a cash register in the cafe, as well as several bottles of liquor and beer. The proprietor had not made a complete count of the stolen goods last night.

IN THE GROCERY, the burglars made off with $25, mostly bills, that was left in a bag near the cash register, and $10 in small change, in the register itself.

An undetermined quantity of cigarette, candy and canned food also was stolen from the grocery.

A small amount of blood was found by police on the floor of the bar-room.

Neighbors, who were awake until 2 o'clock yesterday morning, said they had seen nothing unusual and had heard no noise from the two business establishments up to that time.

The DeMatteo's places were burglarized similarly approximately one and one-half years ago.

Yesterday's burglary was investigated by County Detective James V. Gleason.

A TABLE RADIO valued at $30, an inexpensive pocketwatch, a change purse containing $2 and a wallet with drivers' license, insurance data and other personal papers were stolen from the kitchen in the home of Walter H. Thomas, of Pottstown RD 1.

The burglar or burglars entered the Thomas home, which is just below the Coventry Brethren church, through an unlocked kitchen window.

They took a stepladder standing outside and raised the window, which was merely wedged to keep it from rattling.

Mrs. Thomas said that nothing else was taken, no damage done (Continued on Page Six)

4 Local Anglers Rescued From Grounded Vessel

Four Pottstown men were among 35 rescued Saturday afternoon from a chartered fishing boat that went aground in Barnegat Inlet, N. J.

They were William H. Bernhardt, 846 High street; Maurice James, of the Sanatoga Inn; Robert Bernhardt, of Pottstown RD 4, and Peter Sloveck, North Keim street.

The owner of the 45-foot boat, Anthony Sapio, of Forked River, N. J., was steering the vessel, the "Trade Wind III," when it struck the north-jetty of the inlet, ripping a large hole in her bow.

Sapio summoned the Coast Guard station nearby for aid as water began to pour into his boat.

Two picket boats and a buoy craft were sent from Barnegat city base to rescue the passengers and four crew members from the grounded fishing vessel. Then the buoy boat and beached near Barnegat city.

J. J. JOHNSON, 60, of Riverside, N. J., suffered a crushed leg when he slipped and fell between the "Trade Wind III" and one of the rescue vessels. He remained in a serious condition in the Paul Kimball hospital, Lakewood, N. J., yesterday.

Coast Guardsmen said the sea was very rough at the $200 fishing craft entered the inlet at 2:50 p. m. Saturday. Sapio handled her with difficulty and could not avoid striking the side of the jetty, they said.

Three of the other passengers were Philadelphians and the remainder New Jersey residents.

THE FIRST READING of an ordinance to revise Pottstown's zoning ordinance of Aug. 30, 1945, also is scheduled for tonight's council session.

Recommendations for zoning changes made by workers of the Institute of Local and State government of the University of Pennsylvania, have been approved by the Planning and Zoning commission.

Also, there was no opposition when the suggested changes were discussed at a public hearing on Oct. 27.

If adopted, the revisions of the old zoning ordinance would modify building restrictions in some residential areas, extend the less restricted residential zones, facilitate the conversion of homes into apartments and provide for business areas in some of the new residential areas of Pottstown.

Neither company went into service.

Heart Attack Fatal To Woman Stricken While Raking Leaves

Mrs. Elmira Heimbach, 69, suffered a fatal heart attack Saturday morning while raking leaves in the front yard of her home on State street, East Greenville.

Three men, driving by the house on their way to go hunting at 7:45 o'clock, saw Mrs. Heimbach collapse. She died before any aid could be summoned.

While the hunters were bending over Mrs. Heimbach's body, a niece, Florence Roeder, of Emmaus, drove up to the house on a morning visit.

Her family said she had suffered from a chronic heart ailment.

THE WIDOW of Isaac Heimbach, who died July, 1947, she was born in Hosenack, near Palm, but had lived in East Greenville since her marriage 27 years ago.

Before her marriage she had been a private duty nurse. Mrs. Heimbach had been a member of New Goshenhoppen Reformed church, East Greenville, since young womanhood.

Surviving are six step-children: Glenn M., wife of Paul H. Gerhart, 212 West Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown.

Heat Breaks Record For Day, Followed By Heavy Rains

It was a weekend of violent contrasts.

Saturday broke an all-time heat record for the day by six degrees after which 85 inches of rain sluiced down, flooding parts of the borough.

But yesterday was cool and crisp. The mercury never topped 58. Wind was the only element common to both.

The record heat mark of 76 was set Saturday afternoon between 2 and 4 p. m. The previous high record was 70, set ten years ago.

It was hardly a day to be watching a football game in a coonskin coat. Most fans were down to shirtsleeves even though the sun was hidden behind massive cloud banks.

Hunters and other outdoor specialists were shedding jackets like birds in moulting season.

THE RAINS came late Saturday night and early Sunday morning.

Several storm sewers at vital corners were clogged with leaves, damming up water and flooding the streets. The corner of High and Washington streets was an example.

Earl Potteiger, street foreman, blamed the situation on insufficient employees to haul away the leaves. He called out two employees who cleared the drains.

As usual, cars stalled in the lake which habitually forms at the South Keim street railroad underpass.

The wind which blew in the storm, yesterday blew it away, leaving a whole day of sunshine.

Clear skies were expected to continue today along with moderate temperatures. The weatherman predicted cloudy for tomorrow with rain at night.

Jewish War Veterans Install New Officers

Lester Rosen, commander, headed the slate of new officers of Leblang-Friedman-Kessler Post 363, Jewish War Veterans, that was installed last night at a meeting in the vestry rooms of Mercy and Truth synagog.

The installation was in charge of David Kessler, outgoing commander, who expressed his thanks to the membership for their "splendid cooperation throughout 1948."

Rosen responded by asking aid from the 100 members and guests present in "keeping the post strong and active in veterans' affairs and community projects."

Others installed were Gerald Princethal, senior vice commander; Isidore Princethal, junior vice commander; Morton Schoenberger, adjutant; Joseph Raden, quartermaster; and Robert Miller, judge advocate.

Ceremonies were followed by a dance.

GOP Liberal Wing Pledges Truman Aid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) said today he has written President Truman a personal letter "offering full cooperation" with Democrats on forward-looking legislation during the next four years.

At the same time Aiken and other GOP members of Congress, who class themselves as the liberal wing of the Republican party, promised a fight to "throw out the old guard leadership of the party."

Senator Young (R-ND) told a reporter there will be a "hell of a battle to shake up the leadership" among Republicans, both in Congress and the party.

Cemetery Meeting Draws Usual 'Crowd'—a Handful of Trustees

The annual meeting of lot holders and trustees of the East Coventry Mennonite cemetery convened for the annual session Saturday afternoon. As usual, no one but a few trustees attended.

P. Buckwalter, who has been secretary-treasurer of the trustees since 1910, when the cemetery group was formed, said he can't remember when a non-trustee lot holder did attend an annual meeting.

"They just seem to like the way we run the cemetery," he said, referring to the 100 lot holders of the cemetery.

Catholics Told of Bible's Effect On Church as 'Forty Hours' Begin

More than 600 persons crowded St. Aloysius Catholic church yesterday as the Forty Hours' devotions began.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John F. Rowan, professor of Sacred Scripture and Hebrew at St. Charles Borromeo seminary, Overbrook, spoke on "The Catholic church and the Bible" last night, in the first of three sermons during the devotions.

Msgr. Rowan spoke of the emphasis laid upon the Bible by the church, both before the advent of printing, when monks and nuns made copies in monasteries and

Jap Expert Reveals New Type of Cancer Caused by Virus

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—A new kind of cancer, the fastest killer of all, produced in rats by Japanese "crisis" in Nagasaki shortly before the atom bomb destroyed their laboratories was described to the American Cancer Society today.

This cancer contains a milky fluid. This fluid injected into rats causes death within one to three weeks, with cancers of enormous size.

The cancer was not reported until because it is many times faster than any other, but it is reported to be due to a virus, a crystalline particle. Scientists are now studying the possibility that such virus particles may be of the part of the cause of human cancers.

ALL THAT IS known about viruses is their existence and that they cause many different diseases. Virus particles cause common colds and influenza.

Today's report was made by Ritsun Kinoshita, president of Osaka Municipal University and of the Japanese Cancer Society, who was given a passport to the United States to inform cancer experts.

He discovered the new cancer and the apparent virus cause in a single rat that was sent him by the Nagasaki scientists. The latter got out of Nagasaki before the bomb. They started the new cancer by giving American rats, known as the wistar strain, two chemical compounds by injection. The pair are potassium arsenite and o-aminazo-toluene. Why these two combined to start a new form of cancer is unknown.

Paroled Convict Shoots Three in Police Ambush

GASTONIA, N. C., Nov. 7 (AP)—A paroled convict, barricaded in his family home, today shot and wounded three persons before being overcome and captured.

Several hundred spectators watched as police and state patrolmen besieged the man with pistols, rifles and tear gas.

Sgt. C. R. Brewer identified him as Ray Aldridge, 21, paroled six months ago from a North Carolina prison after serving part of a sentence for highway robbery.

Brewer quoted the man's father, Parris Aldridge, as saying the boy came home shortly after noon and demanded the use of the family car. Aldridge when refused, he grabbed a rifle and chased his parents from their home, the elder Aldridge, a textile foreman, was quoted as saying.

International Machinery to Be Set Up To Keep Ruhr From Rebuilding Germany

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP)—An international authority covered to keep the high industrial Ruhr valley from ever again bulwarking a German war machine may be set up this month.

Representatives of the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg will meet Thursday to draft a statute for the governing body.

Agreement on the broad principles of international control of the Ruhr, Europe's richest center of coal mining and steel making, was reached the past Sunday by the six Allied powers. Now the technical experts will set to work to set up the machinery.

UNDER THE AGREEMENT, the Ruhr will remain part of Germany and will be governed by a German government to be set up in the future. But an international commission will have the last word on extraction of all Ruhr coal, coke and steel.

The big problem is to set up an international control body with sufficient power to guarantee its absolute authority over Ruhr industry even after Germany, once again becomes an independent power with the signing of a peace treaty.

France and the low countries, in particular, bitterly remember how Hitler marched into the Rhineland and secretly built up the German armies in violation of the Versailles treaty after World War I.

All of the six countries involved in drafting the Ruhr control machinery are determined that such a thing must not happen again.

Control of the Ruhr means control of Germany's power to rearm. In addition, the big steel mills and rich coal mines can aid all of Europe in recovering from the blows of World War II.

RUSSIA ALSO WANTS a hand in controlling the Ruhr. But the deadlock over unification of Germany has split the occupied country in two and the Western Allies are proceeding with establishment of a West German government, in which the Ruhr will have a place.

France wants an international control body from the Ruhr set up and functioning before the Western German government is established. With this in view the six countries are expected to complete the framework of the control machinery at the conference this month.

The six powers have already agreed that the international control body can adequately control any potential German aggression by supervising the distribution of coal, coke and steel.

Under agreements already reached, the United States, Britain, France and Germany will each have three votes on the authority. Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg will each have one.

Enforcement of the authority's decisions will not be a problem as long as the Allies occupy Germany. The real test will come when a treaty is signed and occupation troops are withdrawn.

Boy's Death Blamed On Sex Delinquency

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (AP)—City officials moved today against what they termed appalling juvenile sex delinquency conditions revealed by the slaying of a 13-year-old boy in a park.

Judge Robert Jerome Dunne of the Juvenile court said that Rafael (Rocky) Villaseor, 15, stated orally that he had choked William Gervais, 13, to death Thursday night with a belt and then hid the body in an abandoned electrical conduit man-hole.

The boy's story, Judge Dunne said, was that he and Gervais had up-natural sex relations in a dark corner of Fuller park on the south side, and the slaying climaxed a struggle.

Police Capt. Frank Reynolds said that questioning of several of the two boys' playmates brought numerous assertions that upward of a score of youngsters—boys and girls—had taken part in drinking and sex parties in the park.

Reynolds said "I am appalled at the conditions that have been revealed to exist. We are going to clean up the whole neighborhood."

Reynolds said Villaseor and two other youngsters were to be questioned today on details of delinquency conditions in the Fuller park neighborhood.

Highway Dep't Truck Stolen, Found Later

One of the borough's highway department trucks, reported stolen at 2:10 o'clock yesterday morning, was found at 5:20 o'clock last night by a highway worker.

James W. Eschbach, 672 Spruce street, telephoned police in borough hall that he had noticed the 1941 pick-up truck on Beech street between Sheridan and Thomas streets.

The vehicle had not been damaged.

W. Earl Pottelger, highway superintendent, reported the vehicle stolen from its parking space, in front of 137 King street, near his home.

The green vehicle, trimmed in black, was valued at $1800. It had "Borough of Pottstown" and "Truck Number 1" painted on both door panels.

control, Social Security expansion should be the easiest phase of Mr. Truman's legislative program to press through.

Mr. Truman's security program in the past also has embraced a plan for health insurance. But he has kept this separate from his general recommendations. With the opposition crying "socialized medicine," this proposal has been virtually ignored by Congress.

SOME REPUBLICANS snapped "politics" on May 24 when Mr. Truman last presented his general security expansion proposals. These proposals died in the House wars and means committee which first must pass on all social security legislation.

In January the ways and means group will be reshuffled to a membership of 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans. It has had 15 Republicans and 10 Democrats.

Area Group Attends Gospel Revival Meeting

About 50 Pottstown area members of the Schuylkill Valley Christian Businessmen's association yesterday attended the first of a daily, week-long series of gospel revival meetings in Norris town City Hall.

The annual rally is intended to stimulate attendance in church. The organization is non-denominational.

At yesterday's meeting at 2:45 p. m. the Rev. Carl E. Anderson, pastor of Great Valley Presbyterian church, was the speaker and the Rev. Stanley Cook, Philadelphia, led 400 members in singing.

Among those participating in a saxophone quartet were Homer E. Whitman, 31 Custer court, and Lloyd Fritz, Coleroodale.

A similar meeting will be held every night this week at 7:45 o'clock in the city hall.

Local Marine Reservists To Attend Reading Fete
Pottstown Marine Corps reservists will be among the guests at a party Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Reading armory to celebrate the 173d anniversary of the Marines.

The informal affair will be sponsored by Company B, Sixth Infantry battalion, USMC, in the recreation hall near the armory after a muster has been taken.

Wives and dates of reservists are invited. Beer and refreshments will be served.

An undetermined number, including Lts. Robert K. Hackman, Pottstown platoon commander, and Mansfield W. Williams will attend from the Pottstown area.

Sanatoga Grange Holds Hallowe'en Costume Fete

Sanatoga Grange held its annual Hallowe'en costume party Saturday night in the grange hall.

The 200 guests danced—square and straight—and ate hot dogs, ice cream, doughnuts and cider.

Music for the dancing was provided by Samuel Hanna, piano, Walter Schlichter, accordion, and Robert Marriot, guitar, plus recorded music.

Adult costume prizes went to Edward Lacey and Janet Evans, best dressed; and Eugene Miller and Smedley Noble, funniest.

Juvenile awards were won by Jimmy and Nancy Spellman, most original; Ruth and Sally Snell, best-dressed; and Patty Born and Fay Hillwine, funniest.

A cash register may have as many as 250 gears.

How We Spend Our Money

The Federal Government has been tracing the dollar as it goes to see just where it goes, and how many of them.

Food, shelter and clothing naturally lead the list. Out of total expenditures of $160,626,000,000, presumably the current annual rate of expenditures in the nation, the U. S. Department of Commerce gives the following breakdown in its Survey of Current Business for July, 1948:

	Expenditure	Percent of Total
Food	$48,316,000,000	30.7
Household Operation	21,973,000,000	13.7
Clothing, cleaning, repairing	20,635,000,000	12.83
Transportation	15,467,000,000	9.62
Housing	14,429,000,000	8.98
Alcoholic beverages	9,800,000,000	5.35
Recreation	7,390,000,000	4.60
Medical care	6,407,000,000	3.99
Personal business	6,022,000,000	3.96
Tobacco	3,880,000,000	2.40
Personal care	2,264,000,000	1.40
Jewelry	1,365,000,000	.84
Death expenses	908,000,000	.56
Religious houses	874,000,000	.54
Higher education	509,000,000	.32
Elementary and secondary schools	279,000,000	.11
Other institutions, except athletic	152,000,000	.09
Business and trade schools	62,000,000	.04
Education and research foundations	57,000,000	.03
Correspondence schools	27,000,000	.01

Total $160,626,000,000 100.00

Note from the above breakdown of national expenditures in the United States that Transportation ranks fourth, a billion dollars ahead of the amount spent for housing. In other words, the automobile is getting a larger share of the spendable dollar than housing.

Alcoholic beverages take more than nine times the amount spent on all education, including colleges, elementary and secondary schools, business and trade schools, education and research foundations and correspondence schools; $9,800,000,000 for alcohol, $1,086,000,000 for education.

Recreation takes seven times the amount spent on education, and tobacco gets three times the amount spent on education.

More is spent on jewelry than is spent on education.

Religious bodies, support of churches, at a rate down on the list with a total of $884,000,000, or about one half of one percent going for spiritual development.

Bubbles

MARY NOLAN died the other day. Name doesn't register? Try Imogene Wilson, the name "Bubbles" used in her pre-movie days when she was the toast of Broadway.

Neither name nor Bubbles' obscure fate is likely to ring a bell with those who most need the lesson—the teen agers poring over movie magazines, daydreaming of Success and Life as defined by Hollywood.

There are some solid successes in the films. But they're seldom the people who won contracts with broad shoulders or "virile" features, or titles as Turnip Queen or Miss Podunk Center.

There are few downright harder professions than the stage. Exhausting years of work, strict self-discipline and a fanatical single-mindedness tell the real success stories. But such stern requirements are too discouraging for the kids who still believe in the golden contract at the end of the Technicolor rainbow. So the press agents and myth makers grind out fables about young men with boyish twinkles and young girls who sing suggestively off key or expose themselves on the beach.

A few like that do make the grade, for a while. Then the gloss wears off. Someone more boyish or more vigorous is "discovered." Then smaller and smaller bit parts; more of "Don't call us, we'll call you." Some can't take it as long as Bubbles did. Some rise to fame or drink. Some take the quick way out — an overdose of sleeping pills — as the fashion now.

Some achieve the headlines they once made were especially spectacular or because factors are sentimental, make the front page for a few days. Most get an obscure paragraph or two on an inside page. Hardly any rate a second thought from the fans who swooned when they were on the way up.

Grampaw Oakley

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir: My Brother,

Wal, I see by the papers where motorcars, according to automobile salesmen, cost less per pound than does meat. That's all right, but the status of my bankroll is 'thaw I can't eat my steak and drive it, too.

Now it's television sets for automobiles. What a boon! This enables the driver to watch a football game instead of the traffic lights!

And say: Ice cream for breakfast is now urged. Scrambled egg sundae or a bacon split? Hopin' you air the same,

Charges Borough Democrats Out to Bust Union

'Get Rid of Dictators'

To the Editor: I have often heard it said by the PAC and the Democrats that, if Governor Dewey was elected President, the working man was done for. He would bust labor wide open.

Isn't it funny now the same thing happened right in your own back yard—not by the Republicans, but by the Democrats. These same councilmen work in plants where they have a union, and I bet they didn't for it because that puts money in their pocket. But when they are in the driver's seat, that is another story.

Let's get rid of the dictators' tank, sit in borough hall, or let's not have an election, and let them run things as they are now. They sure can kick you around when you ask for a little more bread on the table.

How about Washington street where these same Democrats tore up a good street and made a mess out of it, then had to get a contractor to put it down again? He must be a Republican, for the job was done as it should have been in the beginning.

Don't talk about the Republicans in Philadelphia. Let us clean house at home.

Says Truman's Is War Policy

To the Editor: What is this free America coming to?

For the last 16 years we have been governed by one party, and until F.D.R.'s death, we were under one man. Now the time had come to change, but it didn't.

WASHINGTON

Truman Friends Hope Victory Won't Hurt Him

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 — President Truman's closest friends have presumed to beg him not to let his stunning reelection victory inflate his ego as did Franklin D. Roosevelt when he carried all save the two states of Maine and Vermont against Alf Landon in 1936.

They do not want Mr. Truman, who is naturally elated beyond description by his triumph over party politicians and the faint-hearted, to duplicate F. D. R.'s light-hearted blunders after the 1936 landslide.

It was his tremendous sweep which led the late Chief Executive to believe that he could force Congress to "pack" the Supreme Court, and to attempt a purge of anti-White House members of the Congress.

Figuring that Mr. Truman will not seek re-election in 1952, if only because of his age, his smarter advisers suggest that he can insure a series of Democratic triumphs if he abandons partisanship in his policies and appointments, if he plays along with Congress and if he drops the role which he felt that he had to assume during the campaign—namely, the candidate of labor, racial and religious blocs.

LINCOLN: To quote the words of a man not only close to Mr. Truman but a figure who looks forward to a long Democratic life at Washington:

"He can be an Andrew Jackson if he wants to, stirring up strife between the haves and the have-nots for political purposes. What he ought to be is a minor Abraham Lincoln intent on binding up the nations' differences and wounds, including those which the United States has suffered."

Mr. Truman has listened to this advice with tight-lipped silence. It is probable that his personal and political reaction will not be known until he delivers his inaugural message to the 81st Congress and the American people next Jan. 20.

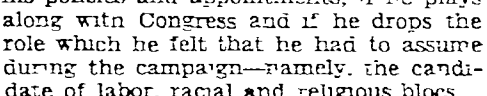

ORDER: Here is what Mr. Truman must do—and it is a large order, in view of the number of Southern conservatives in both chambers—if he is to cash the blank check which the American people gave him on November 2, 1948:

1. He must obtain enactment of a civil rights bill for Federal enforcement of legislation against poll taxes, lynching, political discrimination and segregation.
2. He must persuade or whip Congress into broadening Social Security coverage to include 20,000,000 now excluded, and to increase monthly payments from a $25 to a $50 monthly average. He must also make the boys and girls on Capitol Hill boost the hourly minimum wage far beyond the present meaningless 10¢ cents.
3. He must drag his Democratic majority into reimposition of price controls, rationing and general federal regulation of industry, provided he keeps the pledges which he made during the campaign. He must reduce prices.
4. Simultaneously with cutting living costs he must satisfy two other groups which were largely responsible for his defeat of Governor Thomas E. Dewey—the organized workmen and the organized farmers. He must maintain or increase the present level of wages, or take-home pay, and he must also keep agricultural income at a high rate.
5. On the foreign front he promised that he had a better formula for preservation of world peace than his opponent did. Perhaps he has. But it is up to him to prove it by actions rather than by campaign pledges.

In short, so devastating was the Truman triumph that, in view of the pledges which made it possible, he will have to be a miracle man.

happen and we're heading for another war.

Why don't we let these Democrats who pay Truman there pay all the taxes for the next four years to keep him going? And let only the Democrats send their boys to war?

With Dewey, we might have failed to depression levels, but that is better than having our boys killed.

No, Hitler wasn't the only dictator. We're heading for one, too. And it won't be only the Democrats who suffer.

Gully Used as Dump

To the Editor: As a resident near the ravine along Spruce street between Wilson and Diamond, I wish to protest against the lazy and unexcusable practice of dumping in that ravine.

Now that we have free garbage and trash collection, there is absolutely no excuse for dumping refuse along a public street.

Yet I have seen many persons, particularly women, in this supposedly "nice" section dumping trash into this gully or even stinking up the area burning trash there.

The argument, I suppose, is that they have too much refuse to fit into their trash can. There are two answers to that one. First, they can buy another can, or second, they can leave the extra trash in a garbage can, as I have done many times, and allow the collectors to pick it up.

In addition to looking terrible and smelling worse, the dumping creates a health menace, it seems to me. Would you send your child to play on the city dump? If you wouldn't, then think twice about letting them play in the Spruce ravine. It's the same problem and I have seen dozens of kids down there playing.

Something must be done. Either the shiftless white trash out here must stop dumping trash in the gully or officials must be called to take action.

A neighbor told me he saw the crowning blow the other day. He said he saw a borough truck—an official part of the borough government—dumping a load of trash in the gully.

Invitation to 'Springtime'

To the Editor: When I wrote a letter in defense of Autumn, I thought I had chosen a strictly non-controversial subject, however it seems that one of your readers holds such widely divergent views that he brightly suggests I "Take a long walk in the woods. And get lost."

Okay, "Springtime." To the "Lovers of Autumn," Readers Say, Nov. 4. It was good for a laugh, but just between you and me, don't you think that this "Get lost" business is getting somewhat overworked? Seems to me I've heard it a lot lately.

However, to show that I'm a good sport, I want to extend an invitation. I live along the Manasquan, and right behind my house is a small lake, small but deep. If ever you are down my way, it would be a pleasure to have you drop in.

The Voice of Broadway

Jottings in Pencil

A LONDON-BORN New Jersey business biggie has resumed his campaign for Doris Duke's heart and hand now that she has no longer Mrs. Ford's Rubens. The gentleman, who has untold patience, pursued the actress before her marriage to Jimmy Crowsell and after her split with him. (Incidentally, the Doris-Ruby divorce was forecast here Dec. 8.)

One of Radio Row's top comics is reading a surprise announcement. He intends to quit "for good."

Ex-child star Dickie Moore will wait down the aisle with Patricia Dempsey next month.

They'll spend their honeymoon in New York trying to get him set in a Broadway production of "Marco Polo." Movie theaters will petition the Mayor's office to hit the bongo ban so they can attract business back to almost empty houses.

PRETTY PAT Vanier just couldn't bear being separated from Vic O'Sullivan. She flew back to the Coast to join him.

Greta Garbo was barred from a Hollywood night spot the other evening because she was wearing slacks. She didn't get mad, either—just departed quietly and returned wearing a skirt.

Maestro Buddy Rich and model

THE JOHN CARRADINES (actress Sonia Sorelli) say those stock rumors aren't accurate, although they wish they were true.

Dress designer Bob Strong, whose romance with Los Andrews ended stormily last week, is forgetting it all with Ann Andrews, the model—no relation.

CHARLIE CHALK and Jack Hughes have 15 bushes of hibernation on sale at Keiffer's Central House, Queen street.

A MEAN THIEF — Henry Krause, of Krause's, attended church service at Niagara last Sunday and left his good hat and overcoat in the basement. Someone stole his hat and left behind a headpiece with a big hole in the crown. This is the second time Krause has had a hat stolen while attending church.

BUTTERNUTS GALORE — Capt. Charlie Chalk and Jack Hughes have 15 bushes of hibernation on sale at Keiffer's Central House, Queen street.

CHOIR ANNIVERSARY—The Swamp Lutheran choir observed its 20th anniversary. Director William F. Lamb was given two $10 gold pieces and presented each choir member with a souvenir pin.

PUMPKIN WINE — Certain Sixth warders concoct a recipe for pumpkin wine in these prohibition days. One man scraped out a large pumpkin and poured in 10 pounds of sugar but the result was a great disappointment.

DEFEAT MINERSVILLE—The Pottstown High school football team defeated Minersville High, 23-14. Stars for the locals were Captain Bob Kluger, Paul and Harry Kehm, James Sands and John Stem.

VOTERS' APATHY — The apathy of many voters was rapped by Dr. W. Gallo-way Tyson, of Philadelphia, in an address made here. He said 99 percent of those franchised are members of the Christian church, but he said too many are swayed by politicians and do not vote judiciously.

INDIAN SUMMER — Temperatures rose to 77 degrees today, causing hunters to grumble and farmers to lose fruits through rotting. The former record for the date was 69 degrees in 1912.

POLLYANNA CLUB—The Pollyanna Club of the Century club held a Halloween social at the home of Hazel Mourar. Prizes were given to Jennie Burdian, Mary Wismer, Sylvia Bechtel and Bette Pollock.

The Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Jottings in Pencil

Betty Jo Brown are a steady duo . . . Don Ameche confides to pals that he'd like to find a Broadway play script that he could sink those famous gleaming white teeth into.

Leo Durocher certainly loves that Loraine Day. He just bought her a fur coat, and a car, and now that the baseball season is over, he's managing her business affairs.

Hasn't Col. Herbert G. King, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, been offered the job of successor to J. Edgar Hoover as chief of the FBI under the Dewey administration?

Funny scene night before last in the Onyx Club when Zorita chased a heckling ringer out of the place. She threw a six-foot snake at him!

Intimates are sure that Joan Barton's announcement of her engagement is a cover-up for one of the town's hottest fornications.

Dorothy Fennell's forthcoming film, "The Lucky Star," inspired her fervent spouse, William Ross Howard II, to present her with a platinum compact ornamented with a heart-shaped diamond and inscribed, "For the star of The Lucky Star, from the husband of the same name."

Nizam club orchestras are playing "White Christmas" already.

WE WENT TO THE MOVIES the other eve with one Charles Brackett, the glossier half of Brackett and (Billy) Wilder, Hollywood's most brilliant and directing team. This sort of thing is not an experience to be taken lightly. Even if you're a long-time personal chum of his, such as we are — and fully appreciate his unbounded enthusiasm, his gentle wit. We only stayed through one and a half movies, because the popcorn concession had closed down.

And on our way to a late snack, Charlie regaled us with the story of one of his more rugged fan-pine ancestors who was captured by Indians, and who along with another woman, managed to escape. When the wimmin' returned to their home in Massachusetts, THEY had scalped two Indians on the way, and were totting the scalps to prove it! (D'you think he made that up?) (Also sang us a full chorus of "I'd Like to Be Like You on a Slow Boat to China" complete with a fine set of real lyrics.)

ABSENT-MINDED NOTE. Walter Pidgeon just moved into a new house in Bel Air, out forgot all about it when he was driving home from the studio the other day and drove right up to his old abode. As he was tumbling at the door, trying to get his new key into the old lock, the new tenant of his old home opened the door. "Pidge" mumbled a vague explanation and beat a hasty retreat. . . . Hear that, Colliers is the latest national magazines to be having plenty of headaches. . . . Beverly Tyler and David May, the Dept. store heir, have resumed their coqueting. . . . The night of something or other is Chas. Chaubun's rumored intention of filming his own life story! If he sticks to fact instead of fiction, the censors will sure have a field day. Suggested title for the screenable portions: "The Life of Chas. Chaubun."

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 7 — This shouldn't flabbergast you too much, but from all accounts, Clifton Webb is at present 20th Fox's biggest money-maker.

With the possible exception of Betty Grable, "Sitting Pretty" is of course, one of the years' really phenomenal successes. It might never have been made if Darryl Zanuck had listened to the head of a big theater chain, who blamed the disappointing business that "The Razor's Edge" did on Webb. He told Clifton, despite his age, to make a picture in same. Imagine that! Well, several million people are awfully glad that D. F. Z.'s better judgement prevailed. . . . Jose Iturbi, Spanish-born pianist, composer and conductor, gave piano lessons when he was seven years old and established himself as a child prodigy. Iturbi toured Europe in his youth and has since given concerts in North and South America, Africa and the East Indies. He made his American debut in 1929. Iturbi has conducted most of the important orchestras in the United States concert halls and on radio. In 1944 he made his start in moving pictures in As Thousands Cheer, and his most recent films are Holiday in Mexico and Three Darling Daughters.

Harry James, top "hot" band leader, spent the first 15 years of his life with a circus. His mother was a bareback rider, and his father a band leader. Harry himself was booked as "The Youngest Contortionist" in the business. He also played the drums in his father's band and studied the trumpet. Harry is married to Betty Grable of the screen, and they have two daughters, Vicki and Jessie.

Local Group Starts Fund To Aid Boy Polio Victim

A group of Boyertown residents have volunteered to provide a television set for Richard Weller, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weller, Morysville, who is under treatment at the Reading hospital for infantile paralysis.

Daniel M. Grofe has been chosen treasurer of the fund to which contributions have been invited.

The boy is paralyzed in all four limbs and is confined to an iron lung.

Rescues 15 in Lifetime, Man Is Drowned Himself

DUNDEE, Scotland, Nov. 7 (AP)—James G. Duncan, 71, made a habit of rescuing people from drowning.

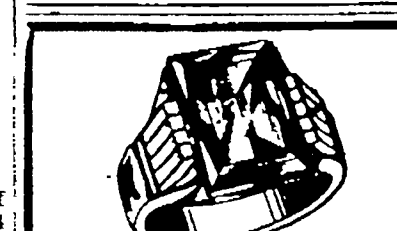

All told, he saved the lives of 15 persons—the last one in July when he fished a man from the sea near the King William dock in Dundee.

Yesterday Duncan himself was found drowned in the waters off the same dock. He was believed to have stumbled while checking a yacht mooring.

Aged Widow Found Slain In Chicago Apartment

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (AP)—A 78-year-old widow was found beaten to death today in the apartment she occupied alone.

She was Mrs. Mary Wicks, who moved here from a farm near Morris, Ill., in 1918.

A neighbor noticed that glass in the apartment's rear door was broken and telephoned Mrs. Wicks' daughter, Mrs. Fern Kunter. Mrs. Kunter and her husband, Fred, found the body, fully clothed on the dining room floor.

Police Capt. J. T. O'Malley said Mrs. Wicks' skull was fractured and a three-foot tree branch which had been shattered lay close by. O'Malley said the apartment had been ransacked. Mrs. Wicks had been dead at least one day, he said.

Soviet Rubber Purchases In Malaya Pass Britain's

SINGAPORE, Nov. 7 (AP)—Russia got nearly twice as much rubber from British Malaya in October as Britain herself did, figures disclosed today.

Russia bought 17,322 tons while the United Kingdom took only 9,973 tons. The U. S. led all other nations, buying 28,254 tons.

Combined exports from the federation of Malaya and colonies of Singapore totaled 80,181 tons.

Baldpate ducks are closely related to European widgeons.

Buckwalter Legion Post Collects $580 Toward High School Band Uniform Fund

Royersford high school band received a great ovation as it put on a demonstration at Fourth avenue and Main street Saturday afternoon, as part of Tag Day campaign sponsored by Capt. Harris Buckwalter, American Legion post, to raise funds for the purchase of new uniforms.

The committee of the Legion post in charge of selling the tags reported receipts of $580.30, with reports still to be heard, in addition to containers placed in Friendship firehouse, Central hotel, Spring Ford Country club and the American-Italian Socce club. A goal of $600 has been set.

Tag days were conducted Friday night and Saturday. The newly-uniformed band paraded down town before the football game, gave demonstrations before and after the game. Many residents who have not attended football games saw and heard the band perform for the first time.

G. KENNETH SMITH, chairman of the American Legion committee in charge of Tag days, voiced the appreciation of the committee to all who aided in soliciting funds to help pay for the new attire.

Motorist Charged With Ignoring Arrest After Hit-Run Chase

Charges of hit and run driving, resulting arrest and driving through a stop sign will be brought against Eric L. Reed, 625 Walnut street, Royersford, police said following a minor accident 15 minutes after midnight Saturday when the borough police car was sidetracked while parked.

According to Patrolman Uriah Fox, a sedan driver unknown at the time, sidetracked the police car which was parked on Main street just north of the Fourth avenue intersection while the officer was placing a red ticket on an illegally parked car.

Fox said he motioned for the driver to stop, but instead he kept on going. Fox gave pursuit along Fourth avenue, north on Washington street, west on Sixth avenue and north on Walnut street and forced the offending car to the curb on Walnut street near Seventh avenue. When he asked the driver to alight, the latter backed his car and drove into a lane nearby, alighted and went into his home. Fox said he followed the man, who refused to come out, so he took the license number. According to police, the license number was issued to Reed. Damage to the police car was of a minor nature.

A SUMMONS will be sent Elmer Umble, Phoenixville RD., on the information of Police Chief Bryson Turner, charging violation of the stop sign at Third avenue and Walnut street, Royersford.

Chief Turner, driving east on Walnut street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, said he had to stop to avoid being struck by the car driven by Umble, going south on Third avenue. The chief pursued the car and halted it.

and no drawers in the first floor of the house were missing.

She believed that the burglars were frightened away when they heard Thomas upstairs. He had been disturbed by a crowd of young people on the nearby road, at approximately 2:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

When Thomas went downstairs at 6:30 a. m. Saturday he found the window open. After his wife assured him she had closed it before she went to bed, the couple looked around and found the articles missing.

The radio had been purchased recently.

"The true friends and supporters of peace more and more are becoming convinced of the need for an active struggle against warmongers."

"THE POLICY of the present leaders of the U. S. and Britain," he said, "is a policy of aggression, a policy of unleashing a new war. But the policy of the warmongers is doomed to collapse since the social forces in favor of peace are unswervingly growing and will not allow a new war to be imposed."

Bulgarian's order of the day appeared on the front page of Pravda, Communist party newspaper, and Izvestia, government newspaper, which published special six-page holiday editions. The front pages also displayed large pictures of Stalin.

Inside, the newspapers carried the full text of Molotov's speech last night at the Bolshoi theater. The speech also was being read on the Soviet radio.

Izvestia published telegrams of congratulation from several heads of foreign governments, including Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek of China who sent his "most sincere and best congratulations" on the anniversary. Others were received from Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India and Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion of Israel.

Better Be Prepared Than Be Sorry — So Have Auto Checked

Mr. Car Owner, you'd better hurry to have that automobile of yours checked over for Fall and Winter driving.

Remember, if snowed in Pennsylvania as early as October and bad weather can strike at anytime, so you'll want to be prepared. That old bus of yours can't take it any more like it did in its younger days and it needs more attention than ever. And if you are fortunate enough to own a new car, you'll want by all means to protect your big investment.

That means the radiator should be flushed and the proper amount of anti-freeze put in.

A lubrication job with cold-weather oils and greases and new oil in the crankcase is another "must" for car preservation and successful operation.

Get the battery charged for quick starting and see that tires have sufficient tread for safe driving.

Gaugler's Service station, King and Manatawny streets, suggests Mobilization and Mobiloil now of the Winter grade and this establishment will really look after your car properly if you drive in now.

Child Photos a Specialty Of Tiny Tot Studio Here

Specializing in child photography, the Tiny Tot, operated by Bill Shaner Jr., photographer at 26 North Evans street in Pottstown, is a popular studio for the youngsters if you want to chronicle their growth in photos for the years to come.

Of course, folks, photographs of grown-ups are taken, too, but child photography is the main specialty here.

Now is certainly the time to have these photographs made for Christmas gifts. Don't wait until the last minute. Your studio may be too crowded to take care of you. Good picture-taking takes a little time and plenty of skill.

The most modern equipment available is in use at the Tiny Tot. Just drop in and see for yourself. And make arrangements now to have those Christmas gift photographs taken.

Price of New Shoes High! Then Repair Old Ones

Did you ever check on the price of New shoes? And be frankly alarmed to know you'll pay $15, $20 and more for a good pair with quality leather?

All that means you'd better take your worn-out shoes to the Central Shoe Repair operated by Peter Alex at 507 High street in Pottstown and have them repaired.

Here modern equipment is used, quality leather, plus the skilled workmanship of Mr. Alex who has been in the business for many years here and knows what he is doing.

Nothing like a comfortable pair of old shoes and they can often be rebuilt to look like new and save you plenty of money.

DIES IN FALL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP) — A man identified as George E. Donaldson, 29, Syracuse, N. Y., newspaper correspondent here, died today in a 12-story drop from a window of the National Press club building in midtown Washington.

Get Your Car Ready for Winter Weather Now — Take It to Reputable Service Station

Secondly, have a good lubrication job done with the proper oils and greases for cold-weather driving.

Third, have the crankcase drained and flushed and the correct grade of winter oil put in. Oil is the lifeblood of your motor—have it changed regularly and buy the best!

Fourth, see if the battery is charged properly to assure you of quick starting and good performance on cold days.

Perhaps the carburetor may need adjusting for this season, and sparkplugs should be checked to see if they need cleaning or replacing. Bad plugs can cause an extra heavy drain on the gas tank and give you poor all-around performance.

Drive to the Atlantic Service station operated by J. Ralph Borne-man, High and Price streets, where you can get the above services, and minor repair work if needed.

Fresher!

Yes'm—A&P Coffee is fresh as a daisy. In fact, it's one of the few coffees hurried from roasters to stores, with nature's flavor-seal unbroken up to the very moment you buy. No pre-ground coffee, no matter how it's packed, retains so much full, fine flavor as roaster-fresh bean coffee.

Custom Ground

Careful tests prove no one grind of coffee works equally well in all types of coffeemakers. Name your coffeemaker, and A&P Coffee is Custom Ground just right for it. No factory ground coffee can give you this highly individualized service.

Tastes Better

You bet A&P Coffee tastes better! And that's a pretty general opinion. In fact, it's the largest selling coffee in the country by millions of pounds . . . which is mighty conclusive evidence that it has the flavor America prefers.

Truman Reported Ready To Ask Senate Approval To Join With Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—The United States evidently now is prepared to take the next steps toward joining a military alliance with the key nations of Western Europe and the North Atlantic ocean area.

This may be reported as a result of a series of foreign policy talks at the White House over the weekend.

The conferences came during President Truman's brief visit to Washington on Friday and Saturday, ending when he left early today for a two-week vacation at Key West, Fla. In the time he was here Mr. Truman saw Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett on three occasions—at a cabinet meeting Friday, in a visit in Mr. Truman's office on Saturday morning, and again on Saturday afternoon when Lovett and Lewis W. Douglas, American envoy to London, called on the Chief Executive.

It is understood that Lovett gave Mr. Truman comprehensive reports on major foreign policy questions, including the China crisis, the program to build up Western Europe, the general state of the cold war with Russia, and the situation in the United Nations.

THE PRESIDENT APPARENTLY gave Lovett his approval of further negotiations looking toward the development of a North Atlantic mutual defense system. Much work already had been done on this with Mr. Truman's approval.

Moreover, despite earlier reports from some White House sources that the President was highly displeased with some of Lovett's conduct before the election, there was indication that relations between the two men when they met Friday were quite cordial.

There is considerable speculation here that Mr. Truman would like to keep his first term team of foreign policy leaders in their old positions until at least the major elements of his foreign affairs program are through the next session of Congress.

Berserk Gunman Slays Eight, Takes Own Life

CHESTER, Nov. 7 (P)—Barricading himself in a second floor room overlooking Chester's business district, a berserk gunman killed eight persons, wounded three others then fired the last of 20 bullets into his own brain.

It was a mad battle that Melvin Collins, 38-year-old Negro from Exmore, Va., started yesterday morning after he shouted from his bedroom window: "Call the cops."

Police had no explanation for the shooting which they theorized started this way.

A dime fell out of Collins' grasp, bouncing near four men gathered in front of a restaurant over which Collins lived.

Harry Gibbs, one of the group, took the dime and said: "This will get me a cup of coffee."

Apparently this enraged Collins.

Israel Claims Peace Talks In Progress; Denial Issued

TEL AVIV, Israel, Nov. 7 (AP)—Jewish sources said today that direct peace negotiations on Southern Palestine are under way between representatives of the Egyptian and Israeli governments.

The report here came from informants close to the Israeli foreign office. They said the conversations are being conducted either in Paris or Geneva and have been in progress for several days.

A settlement between Israel and Egypt would involve only Southern Palestine, where King Farouk's troops have been operating. The Egyptians suffered military reverses there in post-truce fighting which broke out on Oct. 14 and continued to Oct. 21.

A report published yesterday in Cairo said King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan is suggesting a separate peace between his country and Israel.

THE CHIEF OF STAFF of the United Nations truce mission in Palestine, Brig. Gen. William F. Riler, was reported to have told Syrian, Egyptian, Lebanese and Iraqi representatives in Paris that their governments had better make peace because the Jews are in complete military control of Palestine.

According to the Israeli informants here, the Egyptians have whittled their peace terms down to two basic requirements:

1. That they be guaranteed the right to keep the Gaza coastal strip originally allotted to Arab Palestine in the United Nations partition plan of November, 1947.

2. That the Jews waive any future demands for reparations or damages as a result of the southern front fighting or previous Egyptian occupation of the and Negev territory.

Tension Mounts in Chinese Capital; Rumors of 'Something Big' Persist

NANKING, Nov. 7 (P)—Tension rose steadily today in this nervous Chinese capital, where it was felt that "something big" was brewing on both the political and military fronts of the civil war.

Unofficial reports indicated a battle for the Suchow defense line that guards Nanking was developing slowly but steadily.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek continued his week-long series of day and night closed-door conferences.

Most official sources insisted that the government leader was determined to protect this and other great Yangtze valley cities from the rampant Reds and would neither consent to move China's capital nor seek peace negotiations.

Rumors of both these possibilities persisted but without confirmation.

ALL ATTENTION FOCUSED on Monday's regular weekly memorial meeting at the tomb of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen. It was believed Chiang might give some clue at that time.

Hundreds of government officials

Police Chief Andrew J. Desmond Jr. reported. The Negro shoved a .22 caliber rifle through the window and began pumping bullets.

Returns Home

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King (above) tips his hat as he arrived in Ottawa yesterday. The prime minister, who is expected to return within a week, still showed the effects of an illness which kept him confined for nearly four weeks in London.

PARIS, Nov. 7 (AP)—An Egyptian spokesman denied today that his government is having direct peace talks with Israel concerning Southern Palestine.

The spokesman, a member of Egypt's delegation to the United Nations assembly, made the denial after a dispatch from Tel Aviv quoted Jewish sources as saying such negotiations are in progress either in Paris or Geneva.

Authoritative U. N. sources also said they had no knowledge of such conversations. Israeli informants here would neither confirm nor deny the Tel Aviv report. They said Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok was en route to Paris to attend debates on the Palestine issue in the assembly's political committee. That topic may come up as soon as the committee completes discussions on the Balkans question, possibly tomorrow or Tuesday.

The Tel Aviv report said Shertok undertook the trip more because of the peace talks than because of U. N. consideration of the Palestine issue.

THE SECURITY council is expected to go into the Palestine case again Monday. It already has adopted a British-Chinese resolution calling on Israeli and Egyptian forces to withdraw from positions won in post-truce fighting in Southern Palestine.

The council now has before it a British motion to extend the resolution's terms to cover all of the Holy Land. If any withdrawing is done, it will have to be carried out almost entirely by Israeli forces.

Report Says Austrians Want Troops to Leave

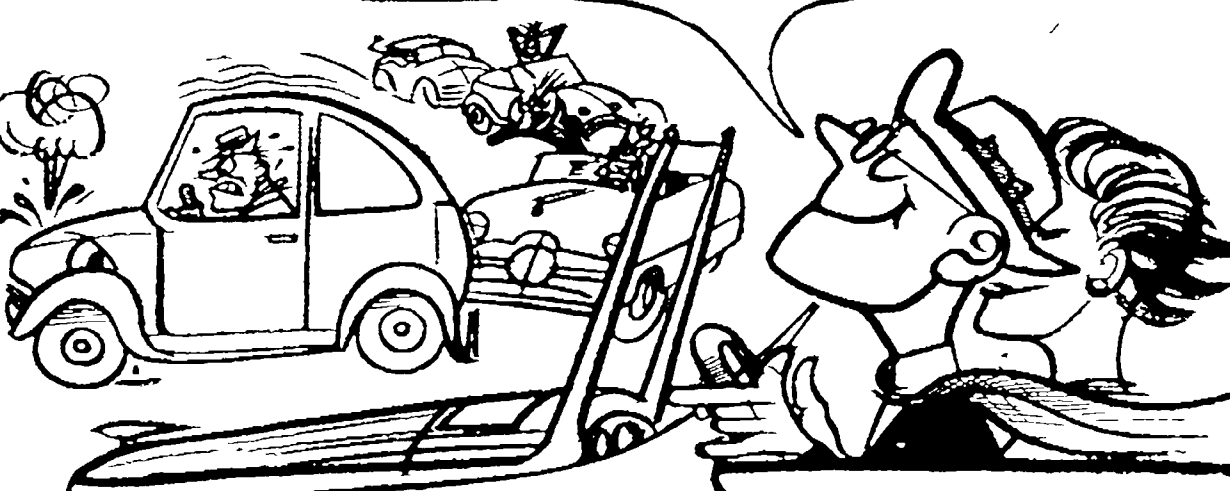

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (P)—Austrians overwhelmingly want the four occupying armies to pull out, a foreign policy association report said today. It spoke of Austria's three years of "uncertainty and frustration."

Non-Communist Austrians concede that Russia might begin putting on the pressure if the Allies leave, the report said. But they feel that Austria will remain united against Communism and certain that "Russia would be obliged to employ out-right force in bringing the country into the Soviet sphere," it added.

HOPE EBBING FOR HARMONY IN ATOMIC DISPUTE

Observers Say Russia Must Change Policies If Accord to Be Reached

PARIS, Nov. 7 (AP)—Unless the Kremlin reverses itself, there is little hope for an agreement on world atomic controls despite orders for the United Nations assembly to work at it some more.

That was the consensus today of Western atomic experts here and a "I have to go the talking with Russia when—and if—negotiations are resumed in Lake Success next year."

The Russians are saying nothing, they hint, in a guarded way, that they are waiting for the West to lead off. They shrug and say: "Wait and see" when asked about their plans for the resumption of atomic talks.

The United Nations assembly the past Thursday approved atomic control proposals drawn up by the majority of nine nations in the International Atomic Energy commission. The vote was decisive but the Russians fought the action to the end.

IN THE RESOLUTION the assembly also instructed the five great powers, France, Britain, China, United States and Russia, plus Canada to consult among themselves to see whether there is any basis for agreement between East and West on atomic controls.

The resolution also ordered the atomic commission to pick up atomic talks where it left off the past Spring. The commission voted at that time there was no use continuing talks until the political conflict between East and West cleared.

By its action the assembly apparently means the six nations are to go over the disagreements and see where there might be a break.

It also means that it does not want atomic talks stopped, as long as there is any slight possibility of agreement.

De Gaulle Party Scores Victory In Elections for Lower House

PARIS, Monday, Nov. 8 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle won a smashing victory today in a legislative election which the general may exploit to hasten his campaign for return to power.

Nearly complete returns in yesterday's voting for the council of the republic—the upper house of parliament—gave De Gaulle's Rally of the French People (RPF) about 40 percent of the 269 seats at stake.

This is well short of a majority of the council, but it is practically impossible for any one party to win outright control of parliament because of the number of parties in the country.

This was the first legislative election in which RPF has run. It overwhelmed the opposition, including the Communists.

Labor Leaders See Fight Over Taft-Hartley Act

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (P)—Labor leaders today foresaw a stiff fight in the new Congress over the non-Communist oath required by the Taft-Hartley act from union officers.

President Truman and his victorious Democratic party are pledged to "repeal" the act, which the 80th Congress passed over Mr. Truman's veto.

But Mr. Truman also indicated he will couple a repeal request with new legislation—possibly approved by both industry and labor. The new legislation may be presented as a compromise between the Taft-Hartley act and the Wagner act of 1935. Management insisted for years that the Wagner law was lopsided in favor of organized labor. The unions fought the Taft-Hartley act, on the other hand, saying that Congress had swung the pendulum too far the other way.

A DE GAULLE spokesman claimed 121 seats had been won by RPF out statisticians at the interior ministry gave it only 99 so far. The semi-official French news agency gave it 107.

Interior ministry figures with only seven seats missing, were: RPF, 99 seats (of which 55 belong to the rally outright, while the others are affiliated.)

Radical Socialists (Conservatives, and affiliates, 50. Socialists, 48. Independents (not RPF), 21. Communists, 16. Catholic Popular Republicans, 15. Rightist Republican Liberty party, 6. Independent Moslems, 6. Independent Algerians, 1.

Regardless of which figures are accepted, De Gaulle's victory as many seats as their nearest competitor, the middle-of-the-road Radical Socialists. One of those elected was Pierre de Gaulle, the general's brother, president of the Paris city council (mayor).

Over 200 Friends Watch Helen V. Sperat Become Church Bride of James Ottaviano

On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, in St. Aloysius Catholic church, Miss Helen V. Sperat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sperat, Sr., 404 Cherry street, became the bride of Mr. James V. Ottaviano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ottaviano, 441 Cherry street.

Over 200 friends and relatives had gathered in the church, where white satin bows and pompons marked off the family pews; white satin bows were used on other pews and palms and vases of flowers graced the altar.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Campbell, assistant rector, while the official recital was presented by Mrs. Charles McCarthy, organist, and Mrs. Paul Guthrie, vocalist.

THE BRIDE, who was given in marriage by her father, was a picture of loveliness in a white gown of satin and lace. It was designed with a square yoked neckline of illusion net, outlined with a double row of deep Chantilly ruffles extending entirely around the yoke. Embedded in the center front of the ruffles were floral designs of rhinestones and seed pearls, with the same designs repeated in the tiny double row of ruffled lace at the wrist of the pointed satin leg-o-mutton sleeves.

The snugly fitting bodice was fastened at the back with a long row of satin covered buttons and attached to a full skirt of satin. On either side of the skirt were deep pleatums of Chantilly lace with the pleatums starting with narrow edged lace and gradually increasing in depth until at the bottom of the hem it widened out to edge the long circular train.

The triple tiered veil of illusion net fell from a scalloped crown of seed pearls and rhinestones and extended for 24 feet, with tiny sprigs of lillies sprinkled throughout. She carried a bouquet of seven white orchids with two of the large orchids cascading from the bouquet with the satin streamers intertwined with lover's knots and baby's breath.

ATTENDANTS who assisted the bride were: Miss Mary Sperat, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Mrs. Mary Pinkus, matron of honor; Miss Doris Wilson, junior bridesmaid; Miss Gloria Wagg and Miss Irene Hudock, bridesmaids; and Misses Jacqueline and Geraldine Sperat, pieces of the bride, flower girls.

All of the attendants were gowned in satin, designed with off-the-shoulder decolete illusion necklines and tightly-fitting bodices. The extremely full skirts were highlighted by bustles in the back which dropped one ruffle to circle around the skirt, forming an apron back.

With this they wore matching mits of satin and headpieces created of net rosettes set in satin scrolls with shoulder-length net veils. Each wore a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bride, and carried old-fashioned bouquets of carnations, gardenias and roses in shades harmonizing with their gowns. In the bouquets were tiny maline bows while showers of satin ribbons fell from the flowers.

THE MAID OF HONOR was attired in Nile green, while the matron of honor was in yellow. Miss Wilson was in blue; Miss Wagg, pink; Miss Hudock, orchid, while both of the flower girls were in Nile green.

Mr. Edward Ottaviano performed the duties of best man for his brother, while serving as ushers were the Messrs. Gabriel Nori, Angelo Saraceni and Guy Sperat, brother of the bride.

Both the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom chose dresses of black with black accessories and corsages of natural orchids.

Members of the immediate families and the bridal party were served dinner at the Clover Leaf restaurant, with the reception following in the evening in the Armory with more than 600 guests attending from Reading, Philadelphia, Tacony, New York City, Bridgeport, Norristown, Boyertown and Royersford.

LATER the couple left for a honeymoon in New York City, with the bride traveling in a grey pin stripe suit of wool with black topcoat and black accessories. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will reside at 404 Cherry street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ottaviano are graduates of Pottstown High school, with Mrs. Ottaviano employed at the Pottstown Shirt factory and her husband in the office of Bethlehem Steel corporation.

Dr. Horace Y. Seidel 3d Takes Bride In Springfield, Mass., Episcopal Church

Dr. Horace Y. Seidel 3d, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Y. Seidel, Beach and Price streets, recently took as his bride Miss Jean Helen Thorpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Thorpe, Springfield, Mass.

The couple was united in marriage in St. Barnabas Episcopal church, Springfield, Mass., by the Rev. E. P. Kennedy, rector, in a double ring ceremony. The altar was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums, gladioli and tall tapers.

A recital of organ music was presented prior to the wedding, and a soloist sang, "Oh, Promise Me," and during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer" was heard.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was stunning in a rose satin gown styled with a low square neckline trimmed with a wide tulle ruffle, cap sleeves, fitted bodice and huge bouffant skirt. She wore satin mits and her only jewelry was a double string of pearls.

HER FINGERTIP length veil of netroom lace was fastened at the crown with a spray of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of eucharist lilies and ferns.

Maid of honor was Miss Helen Becker who was dressed in a blue tulle gown featuring a sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. On her head was a tiara of pink sweetheart roses. She carried a bouquet of roses of contrasting shades of pink.

Little Miss Irene Balachew was the flower girl in a petal pink tulle gown styled like the one worn by Miss Becker. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and blue delphinium.

Mr. Luther Shaner, Pottstown, was the best man and the Messrs. Harold Davenport, also of Pottstown, and Burton Thorpe, brother of the bride, acted in the capacity of ushers.

MRS. THORPE, mother of the bride, was attired in an ice blue satin suit with gray accessories, while Mrs. Seidel chose a steel colored crepe dress with gray and black accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

A dinner was held at the Wayside Inn in West Springfield following the ceremony. A string trio provided music for dancing for the guests who attended from Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts.

When Dr. and Mrs. Seidel left on their honeymoon trip to New York City, N. Y., the bride was dressed in a brown gabardine suit with taupe accessories and a corsage of eucharist lilies from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return, they will reside in their newly furnished apartment in Philadelphia.

Miss Thorpe was graduated from Amityville High school, New York, with a class of 1945 and was graduated from the Brooklyn Hospital School of Nursing the past June. She is now a registered nurse.

Dr. Seidel was graduated from The Hill in 1942, from Princeton university with the class of 1946, and from the Long Island Medical college in 1946. He is now an interne at the Episcopal hospital, Philadelphia.

Double Anniversaries Celebrated at Dinner

At a table beautifully decorated in blue and white, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shaner Sr. were honored with a turkey dinner yesterday in compliment to their 48th wedding anniversary and the 70th birthday anniversary of Mr. Shaner. The couple received many gifts.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Shaner and sons, William Jr. and Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Strack and daughter, Sandra; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shaner and son, Donald Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffman and daughter, Barbara; Coatesville.

Coatesville Edges Trojan Eleven in Thriller Here, 19-14

Raiders Come From Behind In Fourth Quarter to Win

By ELMER PANOC
(Mercury Sports Editor)

Coatesville High 19, Pottstown High 14.

That was the result of 48 thrill-packed minutes of football on Franklin Field Saturday afternoon before a throng of 4000 fans.

The lead changed hands three times during the game, with Pottstown coming back strong to overcome a 12-point deficit early in the fourth period only to have Coatesville regain the lead a few minutes later.

Saturday's tangle was almost a replica of the grid battle between the same two teams here two years ago when the Trojans came out on the long end of the same score.

The fans couldn't believe their eyes when Pottstown came back in the second half to overcome a 12-0 lead with Coatesville built up in the first half.

THE TROJANS took the kickoff opening the second half and marched 81 yards in ten plays to score its first touchdown of the afternoon. Late in the same period, the hosts started their second touchdown drive and the climax came early in the fourth stanza when Bob "Chubby" Stouch plunged over the goal line from the one-yard line to put the Trojans in front.

Sam Green, who played a great all-around game for the Trojans had scored the first six-pointer from the one-foot line on a buck through the middle. Bob Dobry's two perfect placement kicks for extra points gave the Trojans a 14-12 lead.

Coatesville, who had looked like a championship team in the first half, was shocked by the Trojan comeback. The Raiders were also shocked when the Trojans bottled up Gene DiObilda and Bill McGowan in the third period.

Seeing that their running attack was halted, the Raiders took to the air to pull the game out of the fire. After receiving Pottstown's second kickoff, McGowan tossed a pass to Walt Farina for a 28-yard gain to the Trojans' 38. McGowan and DiObilda managed to pick up another first down on three running plays and then Farina passed to Big Earl Holmes in the end zone. The big Negro end had little trouble in outjumping a Trojan defender near the goal line.

POTTSTOWN took the next kickoff and moved to the Coatesville 43-yard line only to be halted by a fumble which was recovered by a Coatesville lineman. The end came soon thereafter.

Both of Coatesville's first-half touchdowns came after long sustained drives. The Raiders took possession of the ball on its own 25-yard line following Pottstown's only punt of the game early in the first period. With DiObilda breaking loose for long runs, the Raiders marched to the Pottstown two-yard line from where the little fullback scored.

Coatesville's second touchdown actually was scored after the first half had ended.

Pottstown, striving to tie the score, launched a touchdown march from its own 14-yard line as the second period opened. The Trojans, thanks to three consecutive passes, moved the ball all the way to the Coatesville seven-yard line before losing it on downs.

THE RAIDERS wasted little time in their own territory. The visitors sprinkled their running attack with two long passes and moved to the Pottstown nine-yard line as the clock showed only a few seconds remaining in the half.

On the next play, a Coatesville pass receiver dropped the ball into the waiting arms of Pottstown's Bob Dobry. As Dobry started running up the field the half ended.

The officials, however, ruled an interference penalty against Pottstown and placed the ball on the one-yard line. The penalty nullified the previous play and Coatesville was given enough time to run one more play despite the fact that the half had already ended.

Coatesville took advantage of the break by sending DiObilda off tackle to score to send the Raiders into a 12-0 halftime lead.

Green and Stouch were Pottstown's outstanding backfield men while George "Bud" Rath played another game at his right end spot.

The Trojans play their last home game of the season on Franklin Field against Bridgeport High next Saturday.

Twin-Boro AA Tops Maria Assunta, 19-6

Maria Assunta AC's six-game winning streak came to a sudden halt yesterday afternoon as Twin-Boro AA chalked up a 19-6 conquest of the local grid team before 1500 fans on the West Pottsgrove High field.

Maria Assunta's great defensive record also came to an end when Twin-Boro scored its first touchdown in the second period. Before that TD, Maria Assunta had held opposing teams scoreless in 19 consecutive periods, including the first period of yesterday's game.

The Twin-Boro aggregation proved to have too much power for the local team. Dick Penny, punter, Twin-Boro halfback, picked up plenty of yardage through the Maria Assunta line and it was his running that led the Twin-Boro eleven to two of their three touchdowns.

Twin-Boro scored first, tabbing their first TD in the second stanza on a three-yard buck by Jackie Newell. Lou Mungin made good on a placement kick for the point after touchdown.

PAUL AXSMITH set up Maria Assunta's touchdown in the third period and then went on to score the six-pointer himself. Axsmith recovered a fumble on the Twin-Boro 29. Pete Kuspis went 12 yards to the 17 and then Axsmith broke loose and scampered 17 yards to paydirt. Wiley's placement was blocked, and Twin-Boro held on to a 7-6 advantage.

Twin-Boro recovered a Maria Assunta fumble on the hosts' 28 in the same period. Three plays later, Bobby Tyson was crossing the goal line for Twin-Boro after a 11-yard run.

In the fourth period, Wiley's punt hit a teammate and the ball bounced around on the hosts' 20-yard line. Clemens picked up the loose piskin and ran 20 yards for the final touchdown.

Out As Manager Wilson Drops 31-6 Decision To Spring City

Spring City hit the jackpot on the first play from scrimmage and then went on to cash in a 31-6 victory over Wilson High Saturday afternoon on the Wilson campus at West Lawn.

Following the opening kickoff, Earl Nelson broke off tackle and galloped 65 yards to get the Pirates off to a good start. Nelson also converted the extra point.

Later in the same quarter, Jim Rentschler and Nelson sparked a Spring City march to the Wilson one-yard line and Rentschler went over easily to make it 13-0.

Early in the third period, Larry Davis climaxed a 38-yard drive by scoring from one yard out to give the Pirates a 19-0 lead. Rentschler hoisted the score to 25-0 by adding his second touchdown in the same period on a 16-yard jaunt around left end.

In the fourth period, Rentschler tossed a short pass to Davis and the latter dashed 44 yards to score his second TD.

Wilson's lone TD came in the fourth period on a pass from O'Neill to Rader. The play covered 44 yards.

FALCONS TRIUMPH OVER COLONELS BY 26-19 SCORE

West Pottsgrove ended a two-game losing streak Saturday afternoon by taking a 26-19 decision from Collegeville High on the West Pottsgrove field before an Alumni Homecoming Day throng of 400 fans.

The Falcons got off to a 7-0 lead in the first period but found themselves trailing by five points at halftime as Collegeville scored its first two touchdowns of the season in the first half.

Coach Bill Goheen's proteges then pushed across three TD's in the second half and held Collegeville to one in the last two periods.

JOE CIORI, Steve Sabo, Joe Dori and Bill Wilkinson, West Pottsgrove's backfield starters, each scored once as the Falcons chalked up their second win.

Sabo tallied first, going around end for 15 yards and a TD to climax a 60-yard march. Ciori went around end to add the extra point.

After Don Palmer and John Moorehead put Collegeville ahead with two six-pointers, Ciori brought West Pottsgrove fans to their feet with a 10-yard scamper around right end to score for the Falcons. The Colonels never caught up as the Falcons took a 13-12 lead and stayed in front the rest of the way.

Dori followed with his touchdown early in the fourth period on an end run from the 10-yard line and then Wilkinson ended scoring by picking up a blocked kick on the one-yard line and stepping over the goal line. Bobby Schneider blocked the punt.

Greenies Defeat Royersford Foe By 19-6 for 8th Straight Victory

East Greenville High annexed the 1948 Upper Montco Football league championship Saturday afternoon by whipping Royersford's defending titlists, 19-6, on the Royersford gridiron before a crowd of more than 1000 persons.

Dick Bieler and Bob Schwyer, East Greenville halfbacks, played a big part in the visitors' victory. The triumph was the eighth in succession for East Greenville and only two more are needed to complete an undefeated season.

Emmaus and Boyertown will furnish the opposition for the Greenies in their last two games.

The defeat snapped a long winning streak for Royersford. The Eagles, defending Montco league champs, were unbeaten this year and had not been beaten since 1945.

BARNEY GRATER brought the rooters to their feet with a 75-yard dash for the only Royersford touchdown in the first period, after Schwyer had scored first for the invaders.

Grater took the opening kickoff from Pennepacker. After three plays, Ketter punted for Royersford to his own 48-yard line. The Greenies rushed for a first down but later lost the ball on downs on the Royersford 17-yard line. Regaining possession of the ball by intercepting a pass, East Greenville advanced to the five-yard line and took a five-yard penalty back to the ten-yard line, but Schwyer more than made it up by curling left end for the first six-pointer.

Dick Ziegler scored the extra point, giving the visitors a 7-0 lead.

Grater's score for Royersford came soon after he took the next kickoff from Pennepacker on the 21-yard line. Schnell gained four, and then two and Grater made four more for a first down. Ketter went ahead for five, but Royersford suffered a five-yard penalty. Schnell followed through with two. On the next play Grater took the ball on a hand-off from Carl and went off a 7-0 lead.

Kulpsville Downs Shamrocks by 18-0

Kulpsville AC scored a touchdown late in the first period with the aid of a long forward pass and then went on to defeat the Pottstown Shamrocks by an 18-0 score on Swinehart Field yesterday afternoon.

The visitors set up their first score with a pass that carried the ball to the Shamrocks' 20-yard line. Three plays later, the ball was on the one-yard line and the visitors had a first down.

The Shamrocks held for three downs before Dick Johnson plunged over for the score.

Bob Heebner tallied twice for the Kulpsville team in the fourth period. He bucked over from the one for his first TD and then caught a pass from Johnson for the other TD.

In two games against the Washington Redskins in 1940, the Philadelphia Eagles could gain only 54 yards by rushing the ball, but they gained 554 yards in the air.

On two different occasions, two kickoffs have been run back for touchdowns in a Washington Redskins-Philadelphia Eagle game—in 1942 and 1947.

Military Rites Held By Legion Post For Earl E. Mock

Military funeral services for Earl E. Mock, husband of Ellen (Endy) Mock, of 1 Diamond court, were held Saturday afternoon from a funeral home at 350 King street.

Mr. Mock died from complications of wounds received during World War I in the Meuse-Argonne offensive in France.

Officiating was the Rev. Luther A. Krouse, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran church and chaplain of George A. Amos Post 47, American Legion, which conducted the military rites.

Interment was made in Mt. Zion cemetery, and bearers were Edward C. Endy, Robert B. Endy, Robert Stetler, Joseph Stetler, George L. Knode and William Wunmer.

William H. Yohn, commander of the Pottstown American Legion post, Earl P. Newton and the Rev. Krouse, were in charge of the military rites at the cemetery.

In the firing squad, captained by William Wagner, were Harry J. Ginter, John L. Suchan, Joseph J. Barrett, Joseph A. Kelly Jr., Paul Smith, Earl Scott, Richard A. Wilson and Winfred Hettrick.

Color bearers were Leroy B. Koch and Clarence H. Grimes. Color guards were Ralph N. Rhoads and Frank Weber.

Taps were sounded by Douglas R. Schwenk, post bugler.

Man Pays Fine, Costs On Disorderly Charge

Herbert L. Brown, 65, of 529 State street, paid $10 fine and costs at a hearing Saturday afternoon on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

The hearing was before Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus, of the Seventh ward.

Brown was arrested by Patrolman Joseph Thies at High and Hanover streets at 1:45 o'clock Saturday morning. He was locked in a borough hall cell until his hearing later in the day.

DEATHS and FUNERALS

MRS. EDITH RIPPET, 56 of 220 SOUTH YORK STREET, SOUTH POTTSTOWN, widow of Edgar V. Rippet, died yesterday morning at 1:15 o'clock at her home from an illness that began the past July.

A housewife throughout her married life, she had been an inspector at the Doehler-Jarvis company since the death of her husband five years ago. He had been employed as a printer by The Mercury.

Born in White Haven, Luzerne county, Mrs. Rippet was the former Edith Prutzman. Fifteen years ago she and her husband moved to South Pottstown.

They lived first on East Main street, then on South Hanover street. She moved from there following her husband's death.

Mrs. Rippet was a member of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown, and she had been a member of the Ladies auxiliary of the Good Will Fire company.

Surviving are the following children: Edgar Arthur Rippet, of 220 South York street; John Rippet, of Penn Village; Edna, wife of Arthur McGrath, of Monocacy; Doris E., wife of Frank Banus, Douglassville; Ethel, wife of Russell M. Hoffman, 220 South York street, and William Butler, of White Haven, a son by a previous marriage.

Also surviving are a brother, Charles Prutzman, Allentown; six sisters: Mrs. Russell Elridge, of Forty Port, Luzerne county; Mrs. S. J. Evans, of Scranton; Mrs. William Heimbach and Mrs. Ralph Marks, of White Haven; Mrs. Susan Williams, of Easton, and Mrs. Mabel Jones, of Nazareth, Northampton county, and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock from a funeral home at 112 North Washington street. The Rev. Robert M. Lamparter, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, will officiate.

Interment will be made in Laurel cemetery, White Haven.

MRS. ALLICIA G. BRADLEY, widow of Walter Bradley, of DOUGLASSVILLE, died at her home yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She was 91 years old and had been ill since December, 1942.

She and her husband came to Pottstown in 1880, living at 170 North Franklin street and later on Chestnut street before moving to a home along Schuylkill road, near Douglassville.

Mrs. Bradley lived there until shortly after her husband's death in July of 1932.

She was a native of Coatesville and a daughter of John and Eliza (Priestly) Greenwood. She lived in Philadelphia for a few years before moving to Pottstown.

A housewife throughout her married life, she was a member of St. Gabriel's Episcopal church, which is adjacent to her home along Route 422 in Douglassville.

Surviving are six children: Charles D., of Douglassville; Alice, wife of the Rev. W. K. Rouse, of Philadelphia; Walter J., of 462 North Charlotte street; Harry, of Norristown; Helen, wife of John C. Egolf, at whose home Mrs. Bradley resided, and Marion F., wife of Ralph Lindstrom, Miami, Fla.

Also surviving are 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from a funeral home at Main and Spruce streets, Birdsboro.

Officiating will be the Rev. Thomas Smythe, pastor of St. Gabriel's Episcopal church, and the Rev. Rouse.

Interment will be made in St. Michael's cemetery, Birdsboro.

Funeral services for DENNIS R. SIKORA, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sikora Jr., of 384 WALNUT STREET, will be held this morning at 9:15 o'clock from 1106 Center avenue, home of his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sikora Sr., 1106 Center avenue.

Angel's mass will be celebrated in St. John's Catholic Church of the Greek Rite at 10 o'clock by the Rev. John D. Taptich, rector. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.

MRS. REBECCA BAMFORD, 75, widow of Robert Bamford, of PERKIOMENVILLE RD., died in Pottstown hospital yesterday morning.

PROVE CAMEL MILDNESS IN YOUR "T-ZONE"!

Prove for yourself what throat specialists reported when 30-day smoking test revealed

NO THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!

In that test, hundreds of men and women, from coast to coast, smoked Camels, and only Camels, for 30 consecutive days—an average of one to two packs a day. And the noted throat specialists who examined the throats of these smokers each week—a total of 2470 careful examinations—reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Make the Camel mildness test. Test Camels yourself for 30 days in your own "T-Zone"...T for Taste and T for Throat.

Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about the rich, full flavor of Camel's choice tobaccos—so carefully aged and expertly blended.

Let YOUR OWN THROAT tell you the wonderful story of Camel's cool, cool mildness. You'll enjoy the test...every puff of it. You'll enjoy Camels.

Money-Back Guarantee!

Try Camels and test them as you smoke them. If, at any time, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund its full purchase price, plus postage.
